1. BACKGROUND & SITUATION

Daily Comfort is a repositioning effort for an established product whose sales have plateaued over the last two fiscal quarters (Q2-Q3 FY25 sell-out data attached in Workfront proof folder). We want to move away from a purely functional narrative and reconnect with the everyday ritual of taking care of one's hands, targeting a broader and more practical audience than our usual premium skincare buyer. This is a tactical mid-funnel campaign, not a launch.

Competitive context: Category leaders (Neutrogena, L'Occitane) compete primarily on price and shelf visibility. FullCosmetics should lean on its skincare-brand heritage to justify a moderate premium rather than entering a price war.

2. CAMPAIGN OBJECTIVE & KPIs

Primary goal: Reposition as the everyday hydration essential

Measurable objectives:

- Lift in-store sell-through by 10% in the 8 weeks following POS rollout
- Improve product page conversion rate on fullcosmetics.com by 1.2 points
- Increase repeat-purchase rate within 90 days by 8%

3. TARGET AUDIENCE

Summary: Adults 30-60, dry skin concerns, practical daily users

A broader, more mainstream audience than FullCosmetics' typical premium skincare buyer — gender-neutral, value-conscious but willing to pay a moderate premium for proven efficacy. Shops primarily in supermarkets, pharmacies (parafarmacia) and via marketplace channels. Low social media engagement; responds better to in-store visibility and word-of-mouth than to influencer content.

4. TONE OF VOICE & KEY MESSAGES

Tone of voice: Warm, practical, comforting

Key messages (in priority order):

- 24h moisture lock
- Non-greasy fast absorption
- Suitable for sensitive skin

5. CHANNELS & MEDIA CONTEXT

- In-store POS and shelf-talkers — primary
- Retail media (pharmacy/supermarket display network)
- Owned e-commerce product page refresh

6. CREATIVE DELIVERABLES

- 1x hero background visual — empty studio set, brand palette, pack-shot ready
- 1x headline + tagline + supporting copy (EN, to be localized post-approval)
- Formats required: 1080x1080 (social), A4 print-ready (in-store POS)

7. MANDATORIES & CONSTRAINTS

- FullCosmetics logo lock-up per brand guidelines v4.2
- 'Suitable for sensitive skin' claim must match the approved INCI/regulatory file
- Print-ready deliverable must include 3mm bleed and CMYK color profile

8. CREATIVE NOTES

This is a mass-market product — tone of voice and visuals should feel more approachable and less 'luxury' than the Winter Ritual or Bright Start campaigns. Keep copy simple and direct. Coordinate final asset sizing with the Retail Media team before final delivery.
